

Government Project Rubric

	4	3	2	1
I can identify who is in each branch of government.	Members of 3 branches of government are identified.	Members of 2 branches of government are identified.	Members of 1 branch of government are identified.	Members are not identified for any branch of government.
I can identify where each branch of government is located.	Locations for 3 branches of government are identified.	Locations for 2 branches of government are identified.	The location for 1 branch of government is identified.	Locations are not identified for any branch of government.
I can identify what each branch of government does.	The jobs of 3 branches of government are identified.	The jobs of 2 branches of government are identified.	The job of 1 branch of government is identified.	Jobs for each branch of government are not identified.
I can identify the powers of each branch of government.	Powers for 3 branches of government are identified.	Powers for 2 branches of government are identified.	Powers of 1 branch of government are identified.	Powers are not identified for each branch of government.
I can create organized work.	Slides are organized and easy to read.	Slides are mostly organized and mostly easy to read.	Slides are a little organized and a little hard to read.	Slides are not organized and hard to read.

Score: _____